CORRESPONDENCE & PRESENTATIONS:

None

The Mayor advised Council that the Building Commission has sent out several letters to residents about code violations relative to their grass.

REPORTS:

Law Director Mark Marong reported; the amendments to the Personnel Handbook are before Personnel Committee. The Committee is meeting this evening after the council meeting and the legislation should be ready for Council consideration on June 5th.

The revised Police Standard Operating Procedures are ready for review by the Safety Committee. Mr. Marong will find a way to send it to the Committee members electronically.

OLD BUSINESS

None

NEW BUSINESS:

Mr. Marong reported that he and the Chief Building Commissioner and Engineer met with Ted Lesiak, an attorney representing the Guru Gobind Sikh Society of Cleveland on Monday. Mr. Marong stated this is the group that purchased the 20 acres of land on Richmond Road, just south of the round-a-bout. He stated that meeting was requested for informational purposes on the zoning process in the Village.

Mr. Marong stated the project includes building a temple on the property and it is in the preliminary stage. They still need to obtain engineering and a wetlands study on the property. They have not made a formal application yet but wanted to understand what is required by the Village.

Mr. Marong stated that if the project does request a Use Variance, it will be filed with Planning Commission and Council will serve as the Appeal Body for the process.
